The area sown with ginsley up to the end of July 1913 is estimated at 563,400 acres as against 532,100 acres during the corresponding period of last year. There has been an increase of 17 per cent. The increase in area is general in all important districts except Visagapatnam.

2. The wholesale price of ginsley is reported as 1 to 1½ Rs. per 100 lbs. in Coimbatore, Chingleput, South Arcot, Chittoor, North Arcot, Salem and Tanjore; 1½ to 2 in Anantapur, and 1½ to 2 in other districts. As compared with the prices reported in April 1913, the price was stationary in Visagapatnam, Karikal, Chittoor, North Arcot, Chingleput, and Tanjore; cheaper in South Arcot, Salem, Tiruchirappalli, Madurai, Tirunelveli, and Malabar; and dearer in the other districts.

COTTON CROP OF 1912-13—FIRST REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1910-11, the area under cotton in the Madras Presidency has represented 8.0 per cent of the total area under cotton in India.]

The area under cotton up to the end of July 1912 is estimated at 210,500 acres as against 190,000 acres for the corresponding period of last year or an increase of about 10 per cent.

1. Central districts and South, mainly Coimbatore tract.—The area in the South and the Central districts does not relate to new sowings, but represents the last year's crop left on the ground for second pickings before it is removed in September in compliance with the provisions of the First Act. The area in these districts rose from 15,500 acres to 17,500 acres, i.e., by 13 per cent. The yield of the second or summer pickings is expected to be normal or slightly above normal, due to good summer showers in May and June.

2. Deccan or Madurai and Western tract.—The area in Bellary fell from 55,000 acres to 52,500 acres for want of sufficient and timely watering rains. There has been a slight increase in area in the other districts.

3. Circar or Coimbatore tract.—There has been a decrease in area in Coimbatore due to late rains.

4. Figures by districts are given in the statement below:—
